“ I met Cynthia in 2006 when I began working for HQA, oddly enough, because of Cynthia's illness. She came back a few months into my employ there and I instantly loved her. She has the most amazing spirit I have ever seen!!!! I only knew Cynthis briefly, but she touched my heart in a way no one else ever has. I thought of her often since leaving HQA and and so deeply saddened to learn of her passing. The world has truly lost a special, wonderful person. I love you Cythia, for the way you touched me and for the way you never failed to make someone smile. God bless her family and friends and all of you at HQA~##imported-begin##Stephanie Rameika, BSN, RN##imported-end##

“ To Cynthia's Family:

May God be with all of you in this time. Cynthia and Mom were in Hospice together and I know that they are both looking down on us all. Cherish the wonderful memories as I have and I will think of all the laughs we had with Cynthia when I worked at Hospice.

May God Bless you all-

“ I don't know where to begin! Cynthia, you were an amazing, one-of-a-kind woman! Your "no nonsense" approach to life and crazy sense of humor will never be forgotten here @ HQA. You are now and forever will be, part of us. It was so bittersweet to be your caregivers at the end, but we would have it no other way! You taught us an immense amount and we thank you for keeping us on our toes. If the vision you saw was as beautiful as the smile on your face, the afterlife must be amazing. My love always to you, Bob, Jamie, Becky and L.B.

“ Cynthia was an amazing person with an exuberant personality. She lit up a room with her sense of humor and her infectious laugh. In the time that I was blessed to have worked with her at hospice, she increased my knowledge and deepened my passion for this very special field. Cynthia left a huge hole in the fabric of our hospice team, as well as in our hearts. She will be terrbily missed and compassionately remembered.##imported-begin##Rhonda Knotts##imported-end##

“ Dear Bob and family,
It was just 4 months ago when Cynthia was visiting with me and enrolling my husband in Hospice care. I was shocked and deeply saddened to read of her passing. There is a saying: People will forget what you said. People will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel. Cynthia's warm smile and compassion made me feel a deep sense of comfort during the very difficult time just before my husband passed away and I will always remember and thank her for that. I hope that you and your family were lucky enough to have someone that comforted you in that way as well. I am very sorry for your loss and hope that many beautiful memories will help to make the pain easier to bear.
Very Sincerely, Patty St. Louis##imported-begin##Patty St. Louis##imported-end##

“ Thank you all for your prayers and love. I am overwhelmed at the outpouring of love we have felt. I found this poem in my mother's things. She wrote it in the 70's. I know that she would want us all to share it with everyone.

The anger of lovers renews the strength of love.

The loss which is unknown is no loss at all.

Many receive advice, few profit by it.

It is not every question that deserves an answer.

Everyday should be passed as if it were to be our last.

It matters not what you are thought to be but what you are.

IT MATTERS NOT HOW LONG YOU LIVE BUT HOW

WELL.##imported-begin##Jamie Mullins, Daughter##imported-end##

“ To All the Family: On behalf of my deceased mother I send condolences on your great loss. My mother was in the hospice program for a year and Cynthia was her assigned nurse. My mother was in her care for a year, during which time she grew to love and think the world of Cynthia. My mother did not make close ties to many people, but she did think very highly of Cynthia's care and was saddened when after a year, she had to be taken out of the program because she was doing so well. the care given by Cynthia was surely one of the reasons mother exceeded the doctor's expectations. Cynthia was a wonderful person and you can find some comfort knowing she touched so many lives. Your loss will be shared by many others you may never know about. I know my mother is very sad to hear of Cynthia's death, but I know she has welcomed Cynthia with open arms and is sharing her knowledge of the paradise they both now share. May you all find peace and comfort in caring for each other in the days ahead.##imported-begin##Bill Smouse##imported-end##

“ ~ I BELIEVE ~

*I believe in miracles and dreams that will come true.
I believe in tender moments and friendship, through and through.
I believe in stardust
and moonbeams all aglow.
I believe there's magic,
and more there than we know
I believe in reaching out
and touching from the heart.
I believe that if we touch,
a gift we can impart.
I believe that if you cry,
your tears are not in vain.
And when you're sad and lonely,
others know your pain.
I believe that when we laugh,
a sparkle starts to shine.
And I just know that spark will spread,
from more hearts than just mine.
I believe that hidden
in the quiet of the night,
there's magic moths and gypsies,
a fairy and a sprite.
I believe that if you dance
the dances of your heart,
that greater happiness will find
a brand new way to start.
I believe the gifts you have
are there for you to share.
And when you give them from the heart,
the whole world knows you care.
I believe that if you give,
even just to one,
that gift will grow in magnitude*

*before the day is done.
I believe that comfort comes from giving part of me.
And if I share with others,
there's more for all to see.
I believe that love is still the greatest gift of all
and when it's given from the heart,
then not one of us will fall.*

To Bob, Jammie, Becky, LB and family my heartfelt sympathy for you all. She loved you all so very much and still had more love to give her friends, patients and their families. I will remember her always. Deb##imported-begin##Debbie Gilmer##imported-end##

“ What a beautiful spirit Cynthia was. She was my Dad's (Bo Benton) hospice nurse for many months, put on a Hawaiian birthday party for him with all the "trimmings" He really loved that girl and she brought so much joy to him while he was moving to the next level. They are both in the same place now and I know she is making him smile again. I was so lucky to be part of her life and I am sure she has touch many many people and helped them move on. She was truly one of God's Angels! Will miss you Cynthia!###imported-begin##Joyce Benton##imported-end##
