“ *Me and Scott had so many incredibly fun times together. More laughs in a couple years than most people have in a lifetime. He was easily one of the most dedicated Marines I ever knew but he was also one of my best friends. I was devastated to here the news of his passing. I was the Radio Chief (SSGT JOE TRUDEL) at 1st Force Recon and He was the Maintenance and Comm Chief. We both worked for LT JOHN RIVISTO. Everyone and I mean everyone loved to be around him. No one could make people laugh like Scott could and we were 2 peas in a pod while serving together at Camp Pendleton. My thoughts and prayers go out to the entire family. If by chance you had a picture to share my email is joetrudel@cox.net. He was a true friend and a great man.

“ Was he a retired Marine? If so, I served with him at 1st Force Reconnaissance Company at Camp Pendleton, CA from 1986 to 1989. He had a major impact on my career as a Marine. Simply fantastic working for him back in the day. My condolences to the family. David Hochheimer Chief Warrant Officer 4 (Ret.)

David Hochheimer - December 23, 2018 at 01:44 AM

He was a retired Marine and yes you probably served with him in Camp Pendleton. Thank you for sharing a memory of him.
