“ I'll never forget the day that Dale came into the American Legion where I was tending bar at the time! He was coughing to no end and looked horrible. I asked him what was wrong and he told me that he had fleas in his house so he got all of these bug bombs and set them off in his house. After he set them off, he went to bed to take a nap! I told him that you couldn't do that. You were supposed to leave the house for a few hours after setting them off. He said yeah, I found that out. He told me they killed his cat. I told him he was really lucky they didn't kill him! Dale was a good guy. He is really going to be missed. My heart goes out to all his family! RIP Dale until we meet again!
