

Daniel Jack Illari

May 18, 1953 - July 7, 2012

Daniel Jack Illari of Grasonville, MD, died July 7, 2012, at home of Leukemia. He was 59.

Daniel J. Illari was born May 18, 1953, at Church Home and Hospital in Baltimore, the son of Jean and Daniel Illari. Daniel grew up in Finksburg, MD, and attended Westminster High School in Carroll County. In the mid-70s, Daniel embraced the Bahá'í Faith and remained steadfast in his faith for over 30 years. In 1996, he moved to Grasonville and was instrumental in establishing the Bahá'í Faith in Queen Anne's County. Daniel helped form the county's first Bahá'í Local Spiritual Assembly in 2002, an institution on which he served until his death.

Throughout his life, friends and family attest Daniel embodied the Bahá'í teaching, "do not be content with showing friendship in words alone, let your heart burn with loving kindness for all who may cross your path." In 2005, Daniel journeyed to Israel with his wife, Jennifer, and her grandmother, Lila, for a Bahá'í pilgrimage. There he visited the Bahá'í holy places in and around Haifa, Israel, which is also the international Seat of the Bahá'í Faith.

He is survived by his mother and father, Jean and Daniel; wife Jennifer; brother Brian; sister Patricia; son Jason and his wife Rachel; and grandson Daniel Gregory. He will also be missed by his extended family and many friends.

A Bahá'í funeral service will be held at Fellows, Helfenbein, and Newnam Funeral Home in Chester on Tuesday July 10, 2012, at 2 p.m. Interment will be at the Stevensville Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers the family suggests contributions to Hospice of Queen Anne's Inc., 255 Comet Dr. Centreville, MD 21617, and members of the Bahá'í community are encouraged to contribute to the Bahá'í National Fund in Daniel's honor.
