

Daniel Aaron McCreary

March 30, 1999 - January 21, 2018

Daniel Aaron McCreary died of an undiagnosed heart defect January 21, 2018. He was 18.

Danny was an active thespian in QACHS's theater department. He served as a high school library intern which led to him becoming editor for the school's yearbook, this year. He intended to become an automotive engineer. To that end, he completed the school's automotive classes achieving several of his ASE certifications. He had recently taken a job at Auto Zone, and still worked part time at Easton Premier Cinema. His work ethic at both jobs earned him a spot in the hearts of his coworkers and managers. He loved photography, and working on the old sailboat he and his sisters had almost completely restored.

He is survived by Daniel and Katina McCreary, his father and mother; Kasandra, Samantha, Grace, Rebekah and Isabel, his beloved sisters; Ron and Teresa Young, and Gayland Carlisle, maternal Grandparents; and Margaret McCreary his paternal grandmother; as well as many dear aunts, uncles and cousins. He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Daniel McCreary and his great grandmother Margaret Clough Lohr.

Friends and family may visit on Friday, January 26 at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A. in Centreville, MD from 6-8 pm. A funeral service will be held at 11 am on Saturday, January 27 at the Centreville United

Thank you for sharing this wonderful video. I love that picture of Danny with the black eye! He almost looked proud to have it! I'm sure there's a funny story there.

“ So very sorry for your loss, may this scripture provide comfort for you and your family.

Isaiah 26:19 - Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, You residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life.

I miss seeing the McCreary's at TBC and hearing Dan and Tina harmonize.

May you feel the Lord's presence and be washed in His peace that surpasses all understanding. Until you and Danny meet again....

*Much love and blessings,

Tina and family: Thinking of you with prayers and blessings during the loss of Daniel. God always wants to the best and he surely got one when he took your son. He was a nice young man who always had a smile. Keep the memories in your hearts and God will be by your side. Our community is surely saddened and may you find peace, comfort and love during this sad time. God bless. Lynda Harris Palmatary
