

Daniel C. Kingston

December 25, 1923 - June 24, 2008

Daniel Clark Kingston of Easton, MD died on Tuesday, June 24, 2008 at Dorchester General Hospital, Cambridge. He was 84.

Born in Buffalo, N.Y. on December 25, 1923, he spent his childhood attending prep-schools, one of which was Avon Old Farm in Avon, Conn where he graduated in 1940. Following his graduation he attended Dartmouth College in Hanover, New Hampshire, and later Babson Business School in Wellesley, Mass. He enlisted in the Army Air Corps serving in WWII. Following his release from active duty with the rank of lieutenant, he began a career with the Maritime Milling Corp; a Feed and Grain business owned by his wife's family. His career took his family from the Buffalo area to Maryland and then back to Long Island, NY where he retired as V.P. of Finance in 1987.

Mr. Kingston, and his wife, the former Barbara Todd, were very active in the training and exercising of game dogs and attended many field trials all over the U.S. and Europe. For many years he served as Gun Captain in the Talbot County Field Club.

In addition to his wife Mr. Kingston is survived by two children, Kirstie A. Kingston, formerly of Cambridge, Mass., presently residing in Easton, MD and Cleve T. Kingston of North Hollywood, CA.

Services at a later date will be private.

Memorial donations may be made to Talbot Hospice Foundation, 586 Cynwood Drive, Easton, MD 21601 or to the Talbot County Humane Society, PO Box 1143, Easton, MD 21601.

Arrangements are by the Fellows, Helfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P. A., Easton, MD.
