“ I worked with Danny as his teacher beginning in 1973 until he graduated and then kept in contact with him as he was employed by the Queen Anne's County Board of Education. When visiting him at work, at Centreville Middle School, we joked about his new jeans, latest music stars, and activities he was involved in with friends and family. I think everyone can agree that Danny was a gentleman and I will remember him as kind, respectful and loving person.

“ I had the wonderful privilege of being one of Danny’s teachers! My first year and I learned so much more from Danny and his parents as to what life was really about and the things we do as a community to take of our own! Very valuable lesson for a rookie!

“ Danny was one of the kindest hearted and gentlest people I have ever known. Danny Thomas personified the fruit of the Spirit the Apostle Paul wrote about in the 5th chapter of the Epistle to the Galatians: "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control... the world is a lesser place without Danny with us.
