“ David and I were Married. We had our good times and our bad times.

Our best times were riding our motorcycles, the places we went, and the laughs we had. May he rest in peace in the palm of Gods hands. R.I.P. Pat

“ in the mid sixties you knew what dave was going to do....work on cars. he always seemed to be in the garage rebuilding a carb or taking a dent of a fender. i'll never forget the two of us taking turns pulling each other through the grass across the street....grass surfing as long as the bumper held on...so many years ago.
