“ *Dear David, you know I have called you the Doer,
Bound to finish the job quite well and quite sure;
Keep always that spirit and you'll find more and more
That people who need help will flock to your door.*

From a poem written by Dave's Grandpa Gribbon in 1982 when Dave was 15 years old.

“ I remember the day at the bay. Laura and I got dragged out and Uncle David had to swim out and rescue me. I also really enjoyed our fishing trips when he would come to visit us in North Carolina. He always went with me even if it was raining.
