“ *Dear David, I can't imagine life w/out you in it. There is so much that I can thank you for but why list all of it. I will always cherish our friendship and my mentor ship. You are my brother from different parents. I am missing your gift of life. Our talks, working together and the hours of painting together. God bless

“ David, you were a wonderful art teacher and I enjoyed bringing you apples from the Tidewater Inn. I will miss you. You are at peace with the Lord above and I felt your presence while lighting a candle for you for your eternal life. It was very sad to lose you and I will continue painting clouds and landscapes and just to make you smile, maybe light houses.

“ David was a gifted landscape painter with a knack for creating mood, drama, and excitement in his paintings. He often made the mundane evoke emotion and suggestion without detail or overworking. I benefited greatly from his teachings and mentorship and will always be grateful for his encouragement. I will miss stopping by the Gallery whenever for a few helpful critiques, a friendly laugh or two, or just to debate the news of the day. Your Memory lives on my Friend!

“ David was willing to share his art and knowledge with everyone. He was a brilliant, instinctive artist, a kind and thoughtful mentor, and a wonderful friend. I will miss him more than I can even imagine at this time. I am grateful for the opportunity I had to study with him, and for the fun times and comeraderie we all had together. Rest In Peace David, and send us some inspiration now and again.

Our Monday art class brought 5 or 6 strangers together and made us fast friends, It opened our eyes to the beauties of nature and light on the shore. David brought an inspiration and magic to his painting and teaching that I feel so lucky to have experienced.

I was part of his wonderful art class on Mondays. David named us the "lunch bunch". I had only known David for 2 years, but he taught me so much. He rekindled my interest in painting with pastels. David was a mentor and he soon became a good friend. I am so grateful to have known him and experienced his love of art. He will be greatly missed.
