

David L. Hunter

March 16, 1933 - December 2, 2014

David Hunter passed away peacefully after a short illness, surrounded by his loving wife, nieces, and nephews in Grasonville, MD, on December 2, 2014. He was 81 years old.

Born on March 16, 1933, in Queen Anne's County, where he was a lifelong resident, he served in the United States Army for three years and received an honorable discharge. He spent all his working years on the water. He crabbed the Wye River in the summer and oystered in the winter months. He loved hunting and fishing. He enjoyed Country and Western music and loved dancing. He was a loyal member of the Bay Country Moose in Queenstown, MD. The thing he loved most was being a loving husband to his wife Lorraine Cook. They were married on November 19, 1955, and they made their home on Perrys Corner Road for 59 years.

Mr. Hunter is survived by his loving wife, Lorraine; his sister, Sissy Gilmer; and many nieces and nephews who loved him dearly. In addition to his parents James and Alice (Strannahan) Hunter, he was predeceased by three brothers, five sisters, and a great nephew.

Pallbearers will be his nephews, Donald Melvin, Billy McMahon, Jameson Melvin, Jonias Melvin, Jordan Melvin, Billy Jones, Trevor Freburger, and Christopher Severa.

A funeral will be held on Saturday, December 6, 2014, at 11 a.m. at Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., 106 Shamrock Road, Chester, MD 21619. Friends and family may call one hour before the funeral. He will be buried at Woodlawn Memorial Park in Easton with Rev. Oscar Lopez officiating.
