

David Martin Post

May 29, 1941 - July 6, 2020

David Martin Post of Rock Hall, MD, died at home in his sleep on July 6, 2020.

David was born in Orange, NJ, on May 29, 1941, the son of the late Everett Borden and Muriel Jensen Post. His favorite pastime as a child was helping his father build a cabin deep in the woods of Princeton, MA. He graduated from Trinity College with a degree in English Literature but was immediately drafted by the U.S. Air Force to serve as a pilot in the Vietnam War. After miraculously surviving his 100 missions, he returned to the U.S. to become a flight instructor, but soon found that his real passion lay in boat building.

In 1975, he was married to Barry Weyburn, and 15 years later they sailed with their daughter to the Bahamas on a cement schooner they built themselves.

After more years of building houses and sailing boats, in 1998, Barry and David visited and fell in love with Rock Hall and the Chesapeake Bay, and moved there to start a company called Tidewater Joinery.

In addition to Barry, his wife of 45 years, he is survived by his sister, Ann Kidd; his children, Duncan, Robin, and Julie; and two grandchildren, Connor and Kitri.

A celebration of David's life will be held at a later date to be announced.
