

David Alan Powers

January 16, 1955 - January 22, 2026

David Alan Powers, 71, of Stevensville, Maryland left this life to be with his Lord, Jesus, on Thursday, January 22, 2026 surrounded by his family. David was born in Pittsfield, Massachusetts on January 16, 1955. He was the oldest of three boys born to Joseph A. Powers, Jr. and Eunice Joan (Diamond) Powers. David attended schools in Shertz, TX; West Springfield, MA; Colorado Springs, CO; and was a proud member of the Spartan's class of '73 graduating from East Longmeadow High School (ELHS) in Massachusetts. He was a loving father, brother, cousin, uncle and friend.

After graduating from ELHS, David struck-out on his own traveling west to Colorado, Utah and Oklahoma. In Oklahoma David pursued his dreams of playing semi-pro hockey until his knees could no longer keep up with his desire and ambition. David became expert in the complex process of building, staffing and training personnel for a rapidly growing national restaurant firm. His skills were in high demand, but after a successful 10-year career in the industry, David, leaped into a new career, channeling his God-given skills, and those honed back in Birchland Park, to become an engineering draftsman and then civil engineer, beginning with McCrone in Annapolis, MD in 1983. Following a very successful and rewarding career with McCrone, David took his skills and the enormous network of work associates to work for the State of Maryland in its Highway construction division. David was respected and well-liked by his co-workers and business associates for his candor, commitment and indefatigability. Throughout his life, no one could out-work David.

He attracted friends easily and there was no truer friend than David. Growing up in East Longmeadow, it was football, baseball and street hockey at Mapleshade; wiffle ball in the backyard; hockey games at Blackmon's pond with goals marked by winter boots; riding bikes everywhere until he traded in his bicycle for a '57 Chevy; snowball fights on Converse Circle; trips to Fenway park – always surrounded by the friends he loved then and for his whole life. When David made friends, he kept them. There was no more natural location for David than orchestrating a multi-grill BBQ or crab-feast, dressed in a Baltimore Ravens jersey, surrounded by family and friends.

David was pre-deceased by his father, LTCOL Joseph A. Powers, Jr (USAF) and mother, Eunice Joan (Diamond) Powers. He is survived by his son Cody Powers (Stevensville, MD) and brothers Gary Powers (Annapolis, MD) and Craig Powers (Hudson, NH) and a multitude of much loved cousins, nieces and nephews and his treasured friends.

The family will receive friends Sunday Feb 1, 2026 from 3-5 pm at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam (FHN) Funeral Home, 106 Shamrock Road, Chester, MD 21619. A funeral service will be held at FHN the following day, Monday Feb 2, 2026 beginning at 11:00 am. Burial will follow the service at the Stevensville Cemetery, 808 Main St., Stevensville, MD 21666.

“ David reached out to me on WWF and wished me a Happy Mothers Day. We began to chat and became friends. David told me that I was the female version of him, and I told him that he was the male version of me. We developed a bond, a strong spiritual connection, and love. We knew God brought us together. We were soulmates. My heart goes out to Craig, Gary, and Cody at this time...Love, Belinda Sue.

I had the distinct honor and pleasure of working with Dave while working together at McCrone, Inc. I was a slight mentor, selecting him to train on newly acquired Computer Assisted Drafting application as well as Storm Drainage Design.

We both moved on to other work ventures and a few years ago reconnected. We met in Chesapeake Beach and enjoyed a very delicious meal and had a great time catching up. We met one two more times, but my health prevented much more.

I told him, from my heart, that he was always one i admired for his work ethic, his ever present positive outlook, and his quick and sharp wit.

I know he was so very proud of his son, as he told me so and I know he greatly admired his brother, Craig a former Tom Cat pilot!

My heart breaks at the loss of a great friend, excellent student, talented co-worker whom I was privileged to call My Friend!

RIP, Dave

David was a member of a social group called Young Anne Arundel Professionals in Annapolis MD around the mid-1980's. He was a kind, decent person and a friend to many of us. Jenny Spivak (Lamb)
