“ Dave and I attended Churchill HS. His locker was next to mine during 11th grade. That was a difficult time for me but Dave always had a kind, uplifting comment to share with me. I truly appreciated those moments and I wish we had stayed in contact after our graduation.

“ "Nature's first green is gold,

Her hardest hue to hold.

Her early leaf's a flower;

But only so an hour.

Then leaf subsides to leaf,

So Eden sank to grief,

So dawn goes down to day

Nothing gold can stay."

-Robert Frost

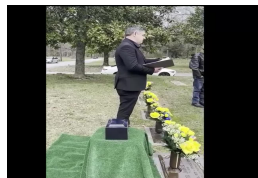

David, you are golden to me. An ounce worth more than a pound of anything else. I both loved and hated how you would randomly insert, remove and reinsert yourself into and out of my life -- nothing gold can stay, but forever in my heart and in my memory you have and will always remain.

“Dave, I can't believe it's been a month since you left me. I think of you first thing every morning. I miss your smiling eyes. What I wouldn't give for just another 10 minutes in your presence.”

“I will always remember David's verbal report to the staff of APMA when he was chair of the recycling committee. He was tasked with meeting with county employees to learn more about the recycling rules and conveying to us how we could improve our office recycling habits. Everyone probably expected a dry, boring speech that we could sleep through, but it was the most hilarious presentation ever, as David described how he gradually "wore away at the sanity" of the poor county employee with his endless questions about how to categorize each type of paper product for sorting. The whole office was in hysterics. That was David, bringing humor to every subject. David, I will miss your wit and wisdom, but mostly your friendship. Thank you for being with me and supporting me through all my trials and tribulations. May you rest in peace, forever and ever, until we meet again. Love, your friend Annette.”

“ David will be truly missed by me, when he would come to Ohio to visit with us. We had so much fun sitting in Helen's sunroom with a glass of wine and reminiscing about family. I never saw David that he didn't have a smile on his face. Another precious life lost at too early an age.

“ Daver, the first friend I made when I moved to DC in the late 90s, the friend who came up with the most creative nicknames, the friend who was always up for a road trip to presidents' homes or a delicious meal at a mom 'n' pop in the 'burbs, the friend who always made me laugh with his wit and caustic humor, the friend who was determined to fight until the end...may you rest in peace, my dear friend. I will miss you and will remain forever grateful for your friendship.
