

David Sandebeck

November 25, 2002

David M. Sandebeck of Chestertown, Maryland died on Monday November 25, 2002 at Kent and Queen Anne's Hospital. He was 86.

Born in Baltimore, Md. on January 12, 1916, he was the son of the late Stephen David and Margaret Crandall Sandebeck. At age ten, Mr. Sandebeck worked as a batboy for the Orioles. He later graduated from City College in Baltimore, Md. and went to work with Sparrows Point. He worked with Sparrows Point as assistant to the General Manager. Mr. Sandebeck was well known and held the responsibility for sea trials on the ships they built and planning the Extravagant Launching Events. He married Elizabeth Richardson of Fairlee, Md. in September of 1945. After his retirement in 1980, Mr. Sandebeck worked with his son as a concessionaire where he created "Uncle Charlie's Lemonade". He worked in this capacity until just last spring. His wife predeceased him in 1990.

Mr. Sandebeck enjoyed serving as master of ceremonies for friends, families, and organizations. He was a devoted Washington College Baseball Fan, a past member of Sparrows Point Country Club, a past member of St. John's Methodist Church in Baltimore (where he served as lay speaker), and a member of Fairlee United Methodist Church in Chestertown, Md.

He is survived by his son Stephen H. Sandebeck and grandson Taylor R. Sandebeck and granddaughter: M. Lee Sandebeck all of Chestertown, Md. Graveside services will be held on Friday November 29, 2002 at 12:00 noon at Chester Cemetery in Chestertown, Md. In lieu of flowers contributions may be made to Washington College Baseball Program 300 Washington Ave.
