“ My most sincere condolences to David's family. We graduated "Tech" together but lost touch with each other as most classmates often do. David taught me extremely important life lessons although at the time we both had no idea. David worked as a busboy at the "Mermaid Tavern" in Stratford while attending school and the management there required a project to replace wooden stands to hold "yard glasses" of Ale. We managed to not only take advantage of the schools machinery but to earn "extra credit" for staying after school to work on a project! The job paid very well at the time and we split the profits 50-50 which was the partnership lesson learned from him. I felt that he deserved more for finding the actual job and to even offer the likes of me to assist him but he insisted on the ratio. Today's lesson from David is to enjoy each and every minute of each and every day.

So very sorry for your lose.

“ David was a part of our family in North East Maryland and a dear friend to my Husband for over 30 years. He was our sons Godfather and took that as an honor. He will be so missed. Each holiday he loved to join us for Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners. He used to bring his Bear with him to visit us, he loved that dog with every bone in his body. They were buddies. He was a very Proud Vietnam Vet, worked tirelessly to support those POW and MIA soldiers. Honored with several Purple Hearts and Bronze Stars he was always a soldier, a gentleman and good friend. He is irreplaceable and will be missed.
