

David Jerome Hersh

October 26, 1945 - July 21, 2009

David Jerome Hersh of Queenstown, MD died on Tuesday, July 21, 2009 at his home surrounded by his loving family and friends after a three year battle with cancer. He was 63.

David was born on October 26, 1945 to the late, Jerome C. Hersh and Esther M. Morgan Hersh in Allentown, PA. He graduated from Drexel University with a B.S. in Chemical Engineering and later received his Masters in Chemical Engineering from Lehigh University. Mr. Hersh worked for 33 years for Air Products in Allentown, PA. He lived on the Eastern Shore for several years, calling the area his home.

He enjoyed fishing, playing piano, and painting nautical and natural scenes. During his career he traveled extensively, nationally and internationally, earning him the nickname of "Renaissance Man" from his friends. He will be greatly missed by his loving wife and family.

Mr. Hersh is survived by his wife, Victoria Hersh of Queenstown, MD; two sons, Michael Hersh and his wife, Michelle of Topton, PA and Erik Hersh and his wife, Becky of Macungie, PA; daughter, Elizabeth Teeters and her husband, Bradley of Fleetwood, PA; step-son, Michael Danehower of Pittsburg, PA; step-daughter, Diane Danehower of Allentown, PA; 7 grandchildren; and sister, Janet Smith of Whitehall, PA.

Services will be held privately.

Memorial contributions may be made in memory of David Hersh to the John Kanzius Cancer Research Foundation, 915 State Street, Erie, PA 16501.

*Please accept my condolences at loss of the Renaissance Man. I remember Dave as a man of immense optimism and hope; an extrovert equally at ease just being by himself boating and fishing and composing; a hard and tireless worker but not a workaholic. May peace be upon him, and peace be with you all. Love,
