

Debbie K. Gannon

March 14, 1960 - October 18, 2015

Deborah Louise Kaufman Gannon of Queenstown, MD died at the UMSMC at Easton on October 18, 2015. She was 55.

Born on March 14, 1960, she was the daughter of the late Floyd B. Kaufman and Alice Clough Kaufman. She grew up in Centreville, MD was a 1978 graduate of Queen Anne's County High School, and married John "Jay" Gannon in 1980. Debbie began her career as a teller with People's Bank and would later work at Chesapeake College in the Bookkeeping Department, and then worked in the Payroll Department at Washington College for the past 20 years. Debbie enjoyed camping and spending time outdoors, cooking and especially spending time with her family.

She is survived by her husband, Jay Gannon; her children, John Connolly Gannon, Jr. and Adam Floyd Gannon; brothers Floyd B. Kaufman and his wife, Margaret and David Kaufman; and a sister, Sherri Kaufman.

A funeral is planned for 11 am on Saturday, October 24 at the Fellows, Helfenbein & Newnam Funeral Home, P.A. in Centreville, MD, where the family will receive friends beginning at 10 am. Burial will follow at Chesterfield Cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be made to Compass Regional Hospice, 255

Comet Dr., Centreville, MD 21617; or to a charity of your choice.

I met Debbie years ago when we both worked at Chesapeake College and our friendship continued as we both transitioned to Washington College. Always cheerful, helpful and patient, Debbie loved her family and proudly shared stories of good times especially camping together. Cherish the sweet memories.

Debbie came to work at People's Bank in 1980, we both had just gotten married and became friends. She taught me how to cross stitch and I thought she was going to pull her hair out, I just kept messing up but I finally got it. We had a lot of laughs and fun!
