

Deborah Kirkpatrick Harrison

March 3, 1952 - July 30, 2021

Deborah Kirkpatrick Harrison died on July 30, 2021 at her family home near Cambridge, MD.

She was born on March 3, 1952 to Elsie H. Kirkpatrick and Roger Maxwell Kirkpatrick. She graduated from Cambridge High School in 1970. Debbie began her long and admirable nursing career at the McQueen Gibbs School of Nursing in Easton, MD and graduated in 1976.

Debbie was known as a favorite instructor at McQueen Gibbs prior to joining the staff at Memorial Hospital of Easton. She began her career with Memorial as a staff / ICU nurse then quickly advanced to the night nurse supervisor position which she occupied for many years. Debbie ended her nursing career at Memorial as a nurse at the Requard Center prior to her retirement in May of 2015. She then dedicated herself to caring for her aging mother.

She is survived by her siblings Roger M. Kirkpatrick, Sharon K. Weaver, R.Mark Kirkpatrick and A.Marianne Kirkpatrick as well as several nephews. She enjoyed books and playing with her pet poodles, but her first love was nursing.

She will be missed and remembered as a remarkable lifetime nurse.

In lieu of flowers, please donate to your local food bank.

Burial will be private.

Never saw Debbie without a smile on her face and a paperback book in her hand. One of my all time favorite night shift supervisors.
