May 18, 1954 - February 26, 2012

Deborah J. Morris of Clayton, DE, passed away unexpectedly in her home on Sunday, February 26, 2012. She was 57.

She was the daughter of the late William Green and Elsie Carey. Better known as Debbie, she was a doting Mom-Mom, mother, and wife. He was famous in Church Hill, MD, while working at Ethel's Sub Shop and making a mean cheesesteak. She always had a kind word or smile for everyone. This wonderful woman is survived by her loving husband, William Morris, Jr.; her two children; Richard Morris and Michelle Shaffner, both of Clayton, DE; and her beautiful grandchildren, Felicia, Heather, Rebecca, Samantha, Dakota, Abigail, and Layla. She is also survived by her uncle, James Featherer; a brother, Bill Green of North East, MD; three sisters, Brenda Simpson of Liverpool, NY, Cheryl Dixon of Chestertown, MD, and Cathy Johnston of Camden, DE; and the entire Morris family and her many friends.

I was very sad to hear about Debbie's passing...I know Debbie & Sharon have found each other in heaven... My mother thought so much of your family and yes indeed, she could make the bestest cheesesteak. Church Hill was one "big" extended family. Take Care of Yourselves, Dawn Rhodes Ventress
