

Debra Manning

July 25, 2002

Debra Kay Sewell Manning, of Salisbury, formerly of Cambridge, died July 25, 2002 at the Anchorage Nursing Home in Salisbury where she had resided for the last five years of complications of Multiple Sclerosis. She was 42.

Born in Talbot County, July 26, 1959, she was the daughter of Clarke W. Sewell, Jr. of Trappe and the late Roberta Ann Sinclair Sewell. After graduating from Easton High School in 1977, she continued her education and became a Licensed Practical Nurse. She then moved to Cambridge where she married and had one daughter.

A member of St. Mark's United Methodist Church in Easton in her younger years, she attended Grace United Methodist Church in Cambridge. In her spare time, she enjoyed going to the library and drinking hot tea.

Surviving, in addition to her father, are her daughter, Jessica A. Manning, of Hagerstown; two sisters, Susan C. Hughes of North Carolina and Roberta S. Elmlinger of Hagerstown; a brother, Clarke W. Sewell III, of Trappe; her maternal grandmother, Grace H. Sinclair of Cambridge; two grandchildren, Kameron T. Pettner and Noah J. Pettner, both of Hagerstown and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held on Tuesday, July 30th, at 1 P.M. at the Fellows, Helpfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., Easton, where friends may call one hour prior to service.

Burial will follow at Woodlawn Memorial Park, Easton.

Memorial donations may be made to the Debra K. Manning Memorial Fund, Fellows, Helpfenbein and Newnam Funeral Home, P.A., 200 S. Harrison St., Easton, MD 21601.
