

Dennis Leonard Carollo

December 4, 1928 - September 18, 2021

Dennis Leonard Carollo of Chester, MD, died peacefully in his sleep on Saturday, September 18, 2021, at Arcadia Living in Denton, MD. He was 92 yrs old on his passing. His was a life well-lived, filled with amazing memories and loving moments shared with many.

Born on December 4, 1928, in Brooklyn, NY, and baptized as Dionizio Leonardo, he was the son of the late Leonardo Carollo and Gertrude Concettina Paolo Carollo. As the oldest child, their family grew to include siblings Josephine Sansone (deceased), Ann (Antoinette) Carollo (deceased) and Carl Carollo (deceased).

Dennis went to New York Public School 135, graduating in 1943. He went to Tilden High School in Brooklyn graduating in 1947, and then to NY School of Interior Design graduating in 1950. Dennis studied Liberal Arts at Brooklyn College until 1951 when he went into the US Army at Fort Dix, NJ. He served as Quartermaster during the Korean War at Fort Bragg, NC.

Dennis was honorably discharged from military service, returning to New York to follow in the family tradition to become an upholsterer. He worked with several NY furniture houses including Kaymore Furniture, Carollo Upholstery of NYC, and then opening his own shop, Carollo Upholstery and Drapery in Freeport and Merrick NY.

An avid hunting sportsman and boating enthusiast, Dennis loved venturing in the mountains of upstate New York or cruising the Long Island Sound and Great South Bay on his beloved boat - EUPHORIA. Early in his life he enjoyed racing bicycles with the Brooklyn Cycling Club and continued to ride his vintage Peugeot all along Long Island and the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

Dennis treasured his beautiful home with his wife, Barbara, in Oakdale, New York, where many joyous celebrations, holidays, and magnificent sunsets over the Connetquot River were shared with family and friends. On moving to Kent Island in Maryland, they continued to enjoy their retirement, living in paradise along the beautiful Chester River.

Dennis is survived by his wife of 45 years, Barbara Carollo of Chester, MD; sons, Dennis Carollo of NY, and Michael Carollo (Elizabeth) of FL; stepdaughter, Holli Goral (Antoni) of Potomac, MD; stepson, Jeffrey Berns (Mary Ann) of Red Hook, NY; and eight grandchildren. He is dearly missed by his adoring fur-pal, Peppi.

There will be a virtual celebration of life at a date to be announced soon.

In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made in his name to Compass Regional Hospice in Centerville, MD. <https://www.compassregionalhospice.org/donate> .

“ On the passing of my Uncle . Uncle Dennis was always there for me , my brother Richard and my mom his sister Josie . He was my Uncle and my father as I grew older he was my friend and mentor.He treated me like a son. He helped me manage things in life. If it wasn't for him I may never have become an avid yachtsman and hunter. Most important he taught me respect and love ❤️. Peter Sansone

“ The first time I met Dennis was at Whitman High School for a production of "Anything Goes". His granddaughter was in the show and he was so excited. He showed me her name, Kaycie Goral, in the program and pointed her out to me when when she came on stage. He was so proud of his granddaughter and I had a wonderful time sitting next to Dennis, watching Kaycie, and getting caught up in his enthusiasm.

He will be missed.
