CARROLL THOMPSON - January 23, 2017 at 08:49 AM

“ I met Dennis 10 yrs ago. He drove all the way from the shore to Baltimore. He was funny, kind, and finicky. And he loved his little ankle bitter, Sisco. We spent 4 years together as a couple and we maintained a caring and loving friendship since that time. Now I am lost without his ear and encouragement. I am sorry for the pain he suffered but I know to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. I will miss you my friend..... I will miss you.

“ I am very sorry about your loss. There is little that words can do to ease your pain at this difficult time. During times like this we need the kind of strength that only God can provide. God can heal our broken heart and give us peace to cope with our loss. (Psalm 147:3) He promises that soon death will be no more and he will permanently wipe tears of sadness from all faces. (Isaiah 25:8) In addition, the pressures and challenges that make life difficult will also be done away with and we can enjoy a tranquil new world. (Psalms 37:10,11) Until that time comes may God grant you peace.
