

Denver The Guilty Dog

July 4, 2004 - February 12, 2018

Denver went to the Rainbow Bridge Monday February 12, 2018 at her home in Millington, Maryland while under the care of Chestertown Animal Hospital. Denver was born July 4, 2004. When she joined our family at 8 weeks old, we fell in love with her immediately! As a puppy Denver would stay up late at night yelping until she eventually chewed her way out of her crate. She had a passion for water and mud and at times would dive under to find things at the bottom. Denver also enjoyed tantalizing squirrels from inside the house and once let out-no matter how fast she ran, she would never would catch them. Every night at the 10 pm last bathroom call, Denver would run down to the creek, growling and barking up a storm until she reached the creek. There she would stare into darkness until the loud splash of Mr. Beaver's tail instantly scared Denver right back to the house whining and whimpering. She enjoyed rummaging through the bathroom trash can, chewing on socks, secretly sleeping on the couch and stealing ornaments off the Christmas Tree. But of all the sneaky things she got into, Denver had one particular infatuation that eventually led to her becoming an overnight internet sensation.....stealing kitty cat treats!

It was March 8, 2011 when Denver became known as "Denver The Guilty Dog," the star of her own viral video on YouTube about stealing kitty cat treats that would eventually be seen by over a hundred million people around the world! As a result, Denver sat on the couch at Good Morning America, appeared in 5 Animal Planet episodes, showed up on every late night comedy TV show, 37 Television interviews, 12 radio interviews, over 1,000 blog posts, Awarded Pet Video of the Year 4 times, landed the cover of 4 magazines, 2 Liquid Plumr commercials, Ministry advertisements, Game shows, her own children's book, school visits all around Maryland, her own line of stuffed toys and a Facebook page with over a million hits per week..... For a dog from the quiet little town of Millington Maryland, that's quite an amazing story! Denver will be missed by many but none more than her family, who loved her and she loved them back just as much. Denver leaves behind her father Mali, mother Brenda, brothers Victor, Clover, Pouncer and Pilot, sisters Sarah, Lacey and Ross. At the request of Denver's family, love your pets every day, let them sleep on your couch and give them all the treats they want! "That's a good girl Denver..."

Services for Denver were entrusted to Fellows, Family Funeral Home, Millington, MD.

She made a big impact on my life as she made me very happy during my dark days. I remember suffering with loneliness back in 2018 when I ran into his video. I remember laughing the hardest I've ever laughed. May she rest in peace <3*

At age 16, he picked up my computer and clicked on your youtube video of Denver and said, "hey Mom, here's a gift for you!" The two of us sat together laughing hysterically, sharing one of the most tender moments in years. He passed away at age 21 and I still go to the video whenever I want to remember Melvin with joy. Thank you so much. And I am sorry to hear about Denver's passing (even so long after the fact). I can only imagine how you miss him. <3*

“ Our dog, Bootsie, drug a couple of bags of lunch-sized chip bags into her kennel in the middle of the night. I found them in the morning, luckily they weren't busted open. When I asked her if she did it, she squinted her eyes, pulled back her lips showing her teeth, & wagged her tail. “ I'm so sorry for your loss. I've watched the original Denver the Guilty Dog video many times and always laugh at this sweetness. It's also bittersweet as Denver reminds me of my own Guilty Issaquena (RIP January 2012), a yellow lab mix who came into our lives as a stray in New Orleans and who made almost the exact face as Denver. Thanks for the wonderful memories.

“ I first saw Denver on AFV. Still to me, the funniest ever. I remember one day when my grown daughter was feeling a bit down, I sent her that video through Facebook messenger. Not that she hadn't seen it many times, but how could that not cheer someone up? I watched it many times over the years for the same reason. I will always be grateful to Denver's loving family for sharing her with us... with the world. I will miss her. I hope to see her at the Rainbow Bridge when I see my own babies. “*Denver made me laugh and laugh till I cried. She had a wonderfully mischievious mind, but most of all, it was her guilt that made her special. I've heard people say that dogs can't feel guilt. I showed them Denver's YouTube pages, and they changed their minds. That look, teeth bared, eyes down, was precious. I just lost my 14 year old black lab, Lola, so I know a little of your loss. “ Dear Family,

*I will miss Denver with all my heart! I broke my back last year and just watching her videos gave me so much joy! I have enclosed a picture of my “ stuffed Denver”!! I think it’s sideways. Sorry about that. More importantly, that stuffed dog brings me comfort every day! Thank you for sharing this stellar being with the world !
Sending much love to you all, from Ct 🌈💕🌸*

“ 2 years ago, my nephew passed away and while we were gathered as a family, I showed his little sister a video of Denver getting caught having eaten kitty treats. It brought a beautiful little giggle to a lovely young girl who was having a hard time dealing with her brothers death so thank you so much to Denver and her wonderful family for giving her a moments respite during a horrible time. I will miss you Denver!

“ My Gracie crossed over The Rainbow Bridge on Tuesday February 20th, 2018. We were huge fans of Denver and her shenanigans. Her videos brought me years of smiles and laughter. Just like my beautiful Gracie. My comfort is knowing they are whole, they are happy and they are in the loving arms of our Lord. Peace and comfort to you all. 🙏

“ So sorry to hear about Denver's passing. She has brought me many a laugh since I first saw her guilty dog video. I loved watching her videos and looking at her escapades on her FB page. Thank you for sharing her with us all and she will truly be missed. We had a big yellow lab named Baxter who looked just like Denver. Hopefully, they are playing together & chasing squirrels at the Rainbow Bridge.

My Heart is Broken with Denver's passing. I cannot watch any videos of her yet. How many times have I watched her laying on the couch, cuddling with the kitties, and eating their snacks. How her actions could cause her Mom to have a heart attack. Eating Lacey's Peppermint Patty. She will always bring a smile to my face and heart forever. I Love You Denver.
