“Tribute for Helfelbein memorial page
Suzi Elasiak
Friend and “adopted” Gramma

Dewayne is like a grandson to me and I was his "local" grandmother. He called me "Ms Suzi". We spent a lot of time together when he was in high school and later when he came home. He especially loved to drive my car and me around on my errands. And get an ice cream. He loved to ask about how it was when I was a teenager, then how life was when I was his age. He was mesmerized how life was then. We talked about girls, dating, and how he felt about life. We texted constantly wherever he was and Dewayne always ended each text with , with, "I love you Ms. Suzi". My last text from Dewayne was Sunday, March 20. With a big red heart. So much love he gave us all. Dewayne will be in my heart forever.

“ Liebe Güler, Steefen und Angehörige wir kannten Dewayne von Kindesbeinen an. Er war als Kleinkind ja oft bei seiner Oma Christhilde und Opa Dieter. Er war ein richtig tolles Kerlchen der uns viel erzählt und mich viel gefragt hat. Offen gegenüber den Männern. Frauen gegenüber war er ehr vorsichtig. Wenn Lena und Lara da waren haben Sie oft gemeinsam am Teich gespielt, wobei einmal Lena baden ging. Die Drei hielten gemeinsam dicht und wir wissen bis heute nicht wie es passiert ist. Gerne hat er im Spätsommer auch die Cherrytomaten direkt von der Pflanze gegessen. Er war ein toller Junge. Aus der Ferne haben wir seinen Wertegang in Amerika durch Gülers Beiträge im Internet mit verfolgen können und waren auch stolz auf Ihn.

Wir danken Dir für die kleinen Späße und deine Offenheit, daß wir kurze Zeit ein Teil deines Lebens miterleben durften.

Ruhe in Frieden.

It's as if he had insights into something deeper in this world. I can't describe the pain I feel losing a friend like him. There is so much I wish I could say. He was truly an incredible person. He would find ways to make me laugh even at some of my lowest points. Crazy in the best way. He was one of the only friends I truly felt I could always rely on and I'll always be grateful for that.*

“ Dewayne was the most warm, charismatic, caring, loving, gentle, person I knew. He was also very confident, bold, outgoing, and courageous. These are all things he has inspired me to be in this life. Before I met Dewayne I never felt comfortable around anyone. It was until we met that he made me feel very comfortable and was the most nonjudgmental person I knew. If you knew Dewayne, you were lucky to have him in your corner. He was the bestest friend and boyfriend to me even for the short time we were together. I will never forget him or let anyone forget him in this life and the next. Dewayne, thank you so much for everything I am truly blessed to have experienced your kindness and love.

“ I remember when Dewayne would always play his country music in the car. He asked me if I liked country music and I said not really. It was my birthday and I wanted to go country dancing so he took the time to teach me and guide me through every step. Later that same day, he took me to go country dancing and we danced all night long together. This was my favorite memory together. I hope you're 2-stepping in heaven. We love and miss you Dewayne. My heart and prayers are with his family and friends during this time.

“ I don't even know where to start you and I have only known each other for 8 months but it felt like forever. In the short amount of time we've been together we built a bond that i don't think anyone has come close to. It breaks my heart that you had to leave us so early. We had plans for our future. We promised to always look at each other's backs. This whole thing feels unreal and I still can't accept that you left us, i don't think i ever will. You were there for me when I needed you the most and you would always check up on me everyday. You were the boldest person I know. The courage and mentality you had I looked up to it. Words cannot explain how much pain my heart feels. I'm devastated that you had to go so early. Everyone loves you. I love you. I know you are looking over us right now and I know you feel nothing but peace and happiness now. You never just be a memory as long as i'm alive a part of you will forever live in my heart. “ For many weeks throughout my Sophomore year, Dewayne and I, along with many other friends used to go to McDonald's after school. While we did order food from time to time, it was the stories and laughs we all shared that truly made these days unforgettable. Dewayne was a ball of energy who could always make you smile. I remember going to Café Sado (the restaurant he worked at) to send him videos of himself bussing tables. “ I'll never forget the time senior year Dewayne drove me after school to get me a new phone in his little old beat up truck that would barely start. He waited with me the whole time and even bought me food.

Every day when I sat next to him in English class and he would always ask me, "Annie are you ok? Are you ok? Are you ok Annie?"

And the time him and Noah Trahar traded clothes (down to the socks) in the library

I'll never forget the goofiness, the magic tricks, and the shenanigans he got into. A beautiful soul gone too soon.

“ I hadn't know Dewayne for that long, just about 7 months, but our friendship felt way longer. He was such a kind person, always had love for the people around him, and never failed to make me laugh or smile. He was such a talented individual, especially at skateboarding, designing clothes, or working on his car.

Some days, I would feel alone in my dorm room and I would just go over to Dewayne's dorm room unannounced, but every time he invited me in to hangout and talk. He would ask me to go to the dining facility to eat together or go to thrift shops and sometimes I wouldn't want to but I never said no because Dewayne was the type of person where you always loved being in their company, no matter what.

I love him and I miss him everyday and I wish everything could have been different.

May he rest in peace and his memory and love love on in all of us forever.

My condolences to his family and friends. My heart mourns with you and I am so so sorry for your loss.

“ Dwayne was an amazing friend to most of the class of 2019. His smile would always light up the room. He will definitely be missed but his life will be celebrated everyday💕

“ We came to know Dewayne from him working at Cafe Sado's. My daughter's remember him from school. As often as we're at Sado's, Dewayne would come over and talk with us and even enjoyed a birthday cake celebration (it was ice cream cake). I remember he said that he loved ice cream cake.

I'm so sorry for your loss. He was a nice young gentleman!
