“ To the family and friends of Dewey F. Wilson Sr. I am so sorry to hear of your loss, please accept my sincerest condolences. We all know that death is something that plagues all of mankind, no matter our race or age. However, I found it comforting to know that God has provided a way to remedy this world-wide epidemic. The scriptures found at Isaiah 25:8 and Acts 24:15 promise that not only will Jehovah God swallow up our enemy death in the future, but that we will be able to see the ones we have loss once again. We all are looking forward to that day when we will be able to touch our dear one's face again, but until then may these scriptures help you draw comfort in your time of deep sorrow.##imported-begin##ms. brown##imported-end##

“ Aunt Janice and Family,

It was so tragic to hear about this loss to the family. I for one will never forget the wonderful stories he told of the past. The wonderful family reunions he threw. I loved how he told us that his water was the best around. That nothing else was as good as his. He was always a delight to be around and loved us all so very much. It saddens me that such a miracle of a man is gone. I can only pray for you to be eased with the pain of this loss and apologize for not being able to be there to pay my tribute to him. Know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. I love you all and he will truly be missed.##imported-begin##Tiffany Thomas##imported-end##
