

Diana Kay Malinowski

December 20, 1945 - November 10, 2025

Diana Kay Malinowski, 79, of Cordova, MD passed away on November 10, 2025, at the Heartland House in Grasonville, MD.

Diana was born on December 20, 1945, in Chester, PA to the late Charles Mould White and Margaret Maoma Jordan. She was a member of the first graduating class of Sun Valley High School in Aston, Pennsylvania. Diana graduated from Moore College of Art and Design and later went on to earn a master's degree from University of Baltimore. She spent much of her career as a technical illustrator; and ultimately moved to the technical publications department of Northrop Grumman. Diana was a phenomenal artist, creating many beautiful masterpieces in her lifetime, both professionally and personally.

Diana fell for her future husband, Charles James Malinowski, in junior-high school; and the two were married on September 9, 1967. The couple lived in Pasadena, Maryland throughout their professional careers, enjoying time on and around the water, gardening and preparing special meals. Diana also enjoyed sewing and made countless outfits, as well as numerous creative Halloween costumes for their son. Upon retirement, Diana and Charlie moved to Havelock, North Carolina, where Diana immersed herself in the local arts community, with many of her works being sold in local galleries. In 2022, they returned to Maryland to be closer to family and enjoy the Eastern Shore lifestyle.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Charles and Margaret White. Diana is survived by her husband, Charles Malinowski and her son, Edward Malinowski and grandson, Jack Malinowski.

A graveside service will be held on Wednesday November 19, 2025, starting at 1pm at the Eastern Shore Veteran's Cemetery in Hurlock, MD.
