

Diane Marilyn Gergar

March 22, 1945 - June 14, 2026

Diane Gergar, beloved mother, grandmother, sister, friend, and devoted dog mom, passed away on June 14, 2026, leaving behind a legacy of love, laughter, grace, and unwavering devotion to her family.

Born on March 22, 1945, in Allentown, Pennsylvania, Diane was the daughter of Thomas and Mim Hallman. She grew up in Allentown alongside her brothers, Tom and Jerry, and carried throughout her life the values of kindness, loyalty, and family that were instilled in her from an early age.

To know Diane was to know a woman of remarkable elegance and warmth. She was truly a class act in every area of her life. Beautiful, stylish, and gracious, Diane carried herself with dignity while never taking life too seriously. She possessed a one-of-a-kind sense of humor, loved to laugh, and had a special ability to make others feel welcome, comfortable, and loved.

Diane enjoyed a successful career in real estate, where her professionalism, integrity, and genuine care for people earned the respect and admiration of colleagues and clients alike.

Diane embraced life wholeheartedly. She loved entertaining, spending time with friends, dancing, sharing happy hours, and creating lasting memories with those she loved. Whether gathered around a table with family or enjoying an evening out with friends, Diane knew how to make every occasion special. She was also a devoted Pittsburgh Steelers fan and looked forward to football season each year, cheering on her team with the same enthusiasm and spirit she brought to every aspect of her life.

Her greatest joy and proudest accomplishment were her children, Richard and Susan, and the beautiful family they created. Nothing brought Diane more happiness than watching her grandchildren grow and thrive. She cherished every moment spent with Colin, Madison, Dylan, Gavin, Lily, Rylie, and Hunter and loved each of them beyond measure.

Diane also shared a special bond with her beloved dog, Lacey, whose companionship brought her endless comfort, joy, and unconditional love.

Those who knew Diane will remember her as someone who lived with grace, loved deeply, laughed often, and brought light wherever she went. Her kindness, strength, style, and unwavering devotion to her family will continue to inspire all who were fortunate enough to know her.

Diane is survived by her daughter, Susan, and her husband, Brian; her son, Richard, and his wife, Theresa; her cherished grandchildren, Colin, Madison, Dylan, Gavin, Lily, Rylie, and Hunter; her brothers, Tom and Jerry; extended family members; and many dear friends whose lives were enriched by her love and friendship.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Thomas and Minnie Hallman.

Though our hearts are broken, we take comfort in knowing that Diane's beautiful spirit lives on in the family she loved so dearly and in the countless memories she leaves behind. Her laughter, her grace, her warmth, and her love will never be forgotten.

A life filled with love leaves a legacy that never fades.

Well done, Mom. Thank you for the love, the laughter, the lessons, and the memories. We will carry you in our hearts forever.
