Throughout her life, Dina embraced various passions and pursuits. She enjoyed traveling, Disney trips, concerts, going to the casino, family parties, her ticket games and crafting.

“ Dina was such a kindhearted person who would do anything for anybody. I remember sitting in my car one night years and years ago, we talked until probably 2am that night/morning and she was such a good listener. She was instrumental when we had Johnny and helped us so much with childcare amid our different work shifts. I'll never forget her kindness and love...April

“ My earliest memory of Dina was from Parkdale. I met her in my science class , we didn't talk much about science , rather she talked about this guy named CHARLIE ! His name was doodled all over her notebook lol. She graduated and gave me her senior picture, I had 2 years to go and we lost touch. Many years later I had gone to OCMD for car show , stopped by the hotel my cousin was staying and I recognized Dina standing in parking lot with her car club. I'd reintroduced myself thinking 20 years she won't know me , but surprisingly she remembered our class together. I asked her " what ever happened to that guy Charlie you were in love with"? Her reply " I MARRIED HIM". ❤️
