“ Trips and spending time with the 3 sisters was so much fun. Whenever they were together there was always fun and merriment. I remember one December the 3 sisters tried to make krusties in my Mother's kitchen. Somehow Brandy became involved. Needless to say very few krusties were made. The silver dollar cookie was born!! Dolores would make the best cakes for my birthday. Her baking skills were unparalleled in the family. Thanksgiving was truly a feast at her house. Whenever I visited or stayed overnight she always made me feel welcome with all the "boys." Now the 3 sisters, Helen, Jennie and Dolores are together spreading fun and merriment in heaven. Rest In Peace Aunt Dolores. Love, Tish Adams McKinstry

“ Taking trips with the three sisters and just being with them was so much fun. When they were together there was always fun and merriment. One December the 3 sisters attempted to make krusties in my Mother’s kitchen. Somehow Brandy became involved. Needless to say, very few krusties were made that year. But the silver dollar cookie was born!!

Dolores would make the best cakes for my birthday. Her baking skills were unparalleled in the family. Thanksgivings were truly feasts at her house. Whenever I visited or spent the night she always made me feel comfortable among all the “boys.”

Now the sisters, Helen, Jennie and Dolores are reunited in heaven and are continuing their fun and merriment. Rest In Peace Aunt Dolores.

“ We will fondly remember Delores as a warm, caring, and gracious person. As a Mother she raised four boys that turned out to be very fine and successful young men. I know Delores was proud of her sons, Joe, Gary, Wayne, and Scott, and their respective families. You can see some of her fine qualities in the family she has left behind. She is another example of the wonderful people that came from South Baltimore. She will be missed by all.

“ We will miss Ms. Dolores's beautiful smile, and we will cherish the memories of how excited and happy she would be when surrounded by her family and friends. She would always ask how we were doing and was genuinely interested in hearing about our extended family members as well. She will be remembered for the love she so openly shared with us all. We will continue to keep her family and loved ones in our prayers.

“ I remember the time that Dolores drove into my driveway and said she had a package for me. She opened the trunk of her car and there was a big box. It happened to be my train order that was delivered to her. We all had a good laugh. R.I.P. Dolores, you'll truly be missed by us all.
