“ Laurie - I found this site and I am so glad I did. Denise's poem says a lot! Although it has been many years since we were growing up on the Eastern Shore, I will always remember Dee and Jack with great fondness. She was always welcoming and warm, even if we weren't always on our best behavior. I know you all will miss her but you have such wonderful memories of better times to sustain you. My thoughts and prayers are with and your families.##imported-begin##Judy Daven Norris##imported-end##

“ I've never done this before. Thanks, Laurie, for telling me to visit this site to get Denise's beautiful poem. I was lucky Dee was my next-door neighbor. We had tea together and enjoyed exchanging plants. She welcomed me into her home and family, and it was very special for me. She was thrilled when I had Lacey and treated us like family. If ever I needed anything she was right there for me, whether it was an egg or something more serious. I came to depend upon her, and missed her terribly when she moved away. I'm sorry she suffered these past few years and that she's gone for good. I always thought we'd get together again sometime. I believe she's in a better place now, maybe we will. My heart goes out to Jack, Laurie, Denise, Shauna, Stacey, Megan, and Madeline. You're all such special people. Now I'm going to copy and paste that beautiful poem so I can print it up.##imported-begin##Val Shirley##imported-end##

“ "She is Gone"

You can shed tears that she is gone Or you can smile because she has lived You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left Your heart can be empty because you can't see her Or you can be full of love that you shared You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday You can remember her only that she is gone Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back Or you can do what she would want: smile, open your eyes love and go on###imported-begin##Denise R. “ *My grandmother was one of the best people you will ever meet. She was kind, caring, loving, interesting, smart and beautiful. She helped raise me and I wouldn't be who I am today without her. She taught me how to love, respect and appreciate life. She was such an amazing person and didn't deserve the pain she endured the last few years of her life. Even though this is hard to say, I know she is in a better place now and God is holding her close up there, just as we held her close here. I will miss her deeply and I love her so much. “ My mother gave me so much to be thankful for

The love of the outdoors and nature-she loved birds, animals and all plant life

She always stopped to "smell the roses"

Her yummy cooking especially her "doughies"

Her love of poetry and art--she took us on many day trips to museums, historical sights, the zoo and other attractions as well as having a fun time at the beach and mountains

She always told us to do our very best no matter what the task at hand was

She made us beautiful clothes

She had a great playfulness and sense of humor

She taught us to be thankful for our blessings everyday

She brought out the best of everyone

She was a wonderful grandmother to my daughter Stacey Michelle and was there for her everyday

She was the best mother a person could have and I am grateful that God chose her to be my mother

*Love, your daughter Denise###imported-begin###Denise R.

“ We were so sorry to hear about Dee. Besides her interesting driving style, she will be remembered by us for her magnificent smile. She could light up a room with that smile.

As friends and neighbors of Dee's daughter, Laurie, when we lived in Annapolis, we were lucky to get to know her and some of her beautiful family. Her smile and generous spirit live on in her wonderful husband and children.##imported-begin##Jenne and Paul Blanchard##imported-end##

“ *Mr. Toth -
Please accept my sincere sympathy for the loss of your beloved. I doubt that I will ever forget the dedication and love you two shared, though I knew you very briefly.
