

Donald Selby Crouch

September 2, 1932 - December 4, 2025

Donald Selby Crouch Sr., an aerospace engineer who worked on the iconic NASA Apollo and Viking Programs, died December 4, 2025 at HeartFields Assisted Living in Easton, Maryland. He was 93.

His death was 11 years to the day after the passing of his beloved wife of 39 years, Shirley Jean.

Don was born September 2, 1932 on Kent Island, Maryland to Dorothy (née White) and Louis Selby Crouch, Sr. His early years were spent trapping muskrats, hunting, boating, and playing sports. After graduating from Stevensville High School in 1949, he left the Eastern Shore to attend Johns Hopkins University in Baltimore, where he earned a degree in electrical engineering in 1954. Don spent two years in the Army before beginning his aerospace career.

As a project manager for Lockheed Martin, Don headed teams that developed tools used in the Apollo lunar program and robotic arms used on the twin Viking Landers to sample the soil on Mars. He was also involved in the Tethered Satellite System for the space shuttles. His work took him around the world, including stints in Germany and Italy. In 1968 he moved to Littleton, Colorado, where he met Shirley; they married in 1975.

After his retirement Don stayed mentally and physically active. He especially enjoyed training for and participating in the Bay Bridge Run, where he was the oldest finisher from 2021-2024.

He is survived by his daughters, Patricia Winchester Underland and Ellen H. Merkey (Tom), stepdaughter Karla Blimes (Michael), stepson Steve Holland (Jackie), his brother Louis Selby Crouch Jr. (Cristina), sister Beverly Young, his grandchildren, Erica Collins (Ryan), Sarah Sampson (Doug), Laura Heller (Jason), and Scott Underland (Kristen), step-grandchildren, Zach Entwistle, Alaine Fulton (Michael), Jon Perry Entwistle (Scarlett), Matt Morris (Missy), Andy Morris (Lauren), and Jonathan Morris, and 21 great-grandchildren. He is also survived by his former wife, Jeannette Marx. He is predeceased by his son, Donald Selby Crouch, Jr., and his stepdaughter, Sheryl Entwistle.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a memorial contribution to Maryland Public Television.
