

Donald S. Dillon

November 28, 1933 - December 8, 2016

Donald S. Dillon of Chestertown, MD, passed away on December 8, 2016, at University of Maryland Shore Medical Center at Easton. He was 83.

Born on November 28, 1933, in Berks County, PA, the son of the late Stewart S. and Viola O. Reber Dillon, he grew up in Pennsylvania until they moved to Lewes, DE. Donald graduated from Lewes High School and went on to serve in the Merchant Marines and then the Army until 1956. Donald was a 32nd degree mason with the Lewes Lodge.

In 1964, he graduated from the University of Delaware and married Rilla Jo Harrison, and they raised their children in Bowie, MD. Donald worked for the Department of Labor and retired in 1995 when he moved to Chestertown, MD. Don was an avid sportsman, staunch advocate for the Second Amendment, and devoted Mason. He shared his love of nature, hunting, and the shooting sports with many generations of youth on the Eastern Shore helping them to better appreciate his life's passion. He generously donated his time to teaching children Hunter's Safety and was always a valuable resource for advice on all things hunting and shooting.

He is survived by his two daughters, Andi Morony (John) of Centreville, MD and Ariadne Weber (Ted) of Edgewater, MD; four grandchildren; sister Shirley Brown of Sinking Springs, PA; three nieces; and one nephew.

Services will be held privately.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be sent to NRA – Freedom Action Foundation (www.nrafaf.org)

“ Andrea

We are so sorry about your Dad. He was a sweetheart, and we never knew where we would see him in our travels. We did see him a lot @ Wilmer Park, reading his kindle and he always had a smile for you and a kind word. Please know that you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers.
