“ Donnie was a childhood friend. We lived down the dirt lane beside his house on Evans Avenue. One day my brother Bradley and I were going down the lane and Donnie followed us home. Mom had a lemon meringue pie cooling. Nancie Lewis bet you can't eat a slice of that hot pie and wash it down with a glass of hot water. He tormented me so much I did it to shut him up. Well, you know what happened about 10 minutes later...sick as a dog! He laughed and laughed and told me, Nancie Lewis you are the dumbest girl I know. He was right. And, until we moved to Stevensville he continued tormenting me. My thoughts and prayers are with Donnie's family. God Bless Nancie Lewis Hall
