“ Don, Thanks for making my 12 years at LaMotte memorable. I still can't believe you're gone. I catch myself wanting to send you silly memes, pictures and quotes or sending you a message to complain about something. I miss you telling me "Bye Felicia." every day. I miss the way you'd go to my room, turn off the light and give me this big old smile when I had caught you doing it. I love how both of us would get excited about certain foods. I'll forever miss our times together over in your old room laughing like crazy. Sure we had our quarrels from time to time but both you and I knew that we'd always be friends. I'm glad you're at peace now. Love you always.
