“ Donna was our cousin. We had a 90th birthday party for our mom last year and Donna brought the best memories of our lifetime. Not to mention flowers for the tables and much of the food and drinks and laughter. She made the day beautiful. Donna, even though we didn't see one another often, you will be missed.

“ Hymn of Promise
Natalie Sleeth

*In the bulb there is a flower; in the seed, an apple tree;
In cocoons, a hidden promise: butterflies will soon be free!
In the cold and snow of winter there's a spring that waits to be,
Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.
There's a song in every silence, seeking word and melody;
There's a dawn in every darkness, bringing hope to you and me.
From the past will come the future; what it holds, a mystery,
Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.
In our end is our beginning; in our time, infinity;
In our doubt there is believing; in our life, eternity,
In our death, a resurrection; at the last, a victory,
Unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.*

Few times I ever saw her that she wasn't smiling and making those around her smile . Whenever Donna spoke of her boys she had a sparkle and a lot of love in her eyes! Donna became a part of my family marrying Tom And in my heart she remains "family"!!! Tommy and Josh you and your families are in my thoughts and prayers!

“ There is an image I have always remembered of Donna, around the age of 9 or 10, riding her bicycle in their Castle Marina neighborhood. She was so happy and energetic and full of youthful innocence with the wind in her hair. I've always remembered her on that day and it's what I see when I think of her today. Rest peacefully Donna. All my love to her family.
