“ I came to know Donna through my employers' relationship with Corrigan Insurance Agency. We worked together for over nine years. I was so sorry to hear about Donna's diagnosis and was even more saddened to learn that she lost her battle with cancer earlier this week. Donna always had a smile on her face and so easy to work with. I wish to express my condolences to her family and coworkers as they cope with their loss. She will be sorely missed.

“ Donna and I have shared a business relationship for many years. We became friends through this relationship and became even closer this year when she found out that we now were sharing this horrible disease. We have talked and shared our tears together. We were travelling this road together, she just happened to leave this earth before me. Donna, I will miss you, but you know that we will meet again. My deepest sympathies to your family. “ I was blessed to have Donna as a sister-in-law for 43 years. I did not get a chance to see her often (usually once a year). She was ALWAYS sweet and her smile reflected kindness/thoughtfulness. When we visited her home, she would put a meal on the table in record time and made it seem effortless. She was a great hostess!! The world has truly lost a beautiful soul. "Memory is a gift that death cannot steal" and my many memories of her will live on. Sandy Pinkham (Georgia).

“ I was blessed to have gone for a job interview in 1997 and meet Donna. I would go on to realize what a wonderful gift it was to know Donna. I sensed what a lovely person she was right away and am thankful for the 18 years I worked with her . Will always treasure the talks we had, the business trips we went on and the fun we had after our work day was over. Donna loved and treasured her husband Fred, her two daughters and grandchildren. When I think about her I smile and now they are fond memories. My love goes out to her wonderful family. Sincerely, Chris Walters
