

Doris Diane Eckels

July 24, 1946 - October 18, 2024

Doris “Diane” Eckels, 78, of Madison, Maryland passed away peacefully on October 18, 2024 surrounded by family. A beloved mother and grandmother, Diane, will always be remembered for her kindness, willingness to help and love she had for her family.

Born on July 24, 1946 in Easton, Maryland. Diane grew up the oldest daughter of Bill and Doris Hoxter. She had one younger sister, Freyae Jones. When she wasn’t helping around the house, taking care of the family, or working. Diane could be found at the Moose Lodge in Cambridge, Maryland where she was an active member. She was best known for helping with the children’s program.

Diane graduated from Stevensville High School in 1964. She loved to dance and play basketball and volleyball. She was associated with the glee club and junior play. Her senior yearbook quote was, “It’s the steady and quiet one who runs the lifelong race”, which she most certainly did.

A proud secretary, Diane devoted her career of 30+ years to the Comptroller of Maryland. Where she was awarded for her years of excellent service.

Doris is survived by her only daughter, Diane “Lynn” Glacken, also known as “Lynne”, 2 grandchildren Ashly Bivens and Shawn Glacken Jr, 4 great-grandchildren Aniyah Bivens, Shawn Bivens Jr, Josselyn Glacken and Kehlani Blake, 1 niece Kelly Markert and 1 nephew Timothy Jones. Also her dog "Gilly" who she loved oh so dearly.

A service will be held for Diane on October 28, 2024 at Fellows, Helfenbein and Newman in Easton. The viewing will be from 2 -3, Service from 3-4 and a small celebration of life following from 4-6 at the Presbyterian Church of Easton.
