“ To the Lill Family;

Your Mom and Dad were to great people. I have many fond memories of them both at KCHS. They always had a smile and always greeted everyone as if they were family. May they both be together in Heaven working on that special project for their home. Will miss them each and every day.

“ I'll never forget their kindness. Mrs Lill especially. She watched my baby at the reception desk until my mom could get there from Rock Hall while my two year old was in the hospital with the croup. She always had a beautiful smile. Thanks for being there.

“ Barbara and I had the privilege of working with Doris during our educational careers. She was truly one of a kind. I never heard one unkind word ever spoken about Doris. She and Joe were two of the main reasons KCHS was such a wonderful school during their tenure. I was truly blessed to have worked with her and honored to call Doris and family my friends. That could not have been said better Mr. Kergaard. Our school was the center of their life and we the students their immediate family every day they worked in that building.
