“ Doris, was my father's first cousin. My grandmother Alice and Doris's mom, Florence were sisters, making my grandmother, Doris's aunt. Her mom and dad used to take me and Grandma Lane to their home during the Summer months for a visit. I had a lot of fun with Uncle Dave; I remember how Doris would say, "Dad," in a sweet way, I felt there was a special bond between them. On some of those occasions, we would visit Doris and Ed, and they were always very nice, and welcoming to our family. They would share stories (most, if not all, comical) about when they were younger, talking talk about how she and my dad spent their summers at the beach, swimming, fishing, sunbathing, and just horsing around in the water!
