“ I will always hold some special memories of Doris. She introduced me to Ocean City one very cold October, and insisted that I go for a walk along the boardwalk even though her (unoperated) knees were giving her too much trouble to walk with me. She insisted on sitting, and shivering, while I did my "workout." Then she took me to see the rest of the sights and followed that up with a trip to Rehoboth and the outlets. I was completely tired out, but she never seemed to flag. Doris will be missed, but she will linger in my memory.

“ Aunt Doris was part of my life for almost all of my life. Growing up she was one of our summer Moms in Kentmore Park. And when we moved in two houses down, she became a friend. We will miss her at Shrewsbury Cottage. We are grateful for the family she leaves behind. Love and sympathy to all.
