“ To the Yeatman Family: I was in Elementary School with Doris here in Centreville for a number of years. I can still see her square dancing in the cafeteria of the school. We had many good times and always would laugh. She use to come home with me and we would play in the yard for hours. My Aunt and Uncle purchased her parents store here in Centreville and had it for many years. My deepest sympathy and prayers are with you in your loss. May God show you the love and strength to face each new day. Lynda Harris Palmatary, 221 Hope Road, Centreville, Md. 21617###imported-begin###Lynda H. Palmatary###imported-end##

“ I knew Doris Yeatman as Dottiesings, she was a Wonderful and Beautiful Person to know. All of us, who knew her as Dottiesings, will Greatly Miss Her...

I have a poem, that I want to share with Doris Yeatman's Family and Friends:

*If Tears could Build a Stairway, and Memories a Lane,
I would Walk Right Up To Heaven and Bring Doris Yeatman(Dottiesings) Home Again!*

No farewell words were spoken, No time to say goodbye. You were gone before we knew it and only God knows why. Our hearts still ache in sadness and secret tears still flow.

*What it meant to lose you no one will ever know. But now we know you want us to mourn for you no more; to remember all the Happy Times, Life still has much in store.
Since you will never be forgotten, we pledge to you today
~A cherished place within Our Heart's is where you will always stay.*

“ I’m not sure what to say about my mommom, because words can’t describe how wonderful she was. She was a true hearted person and a good soul. Everything she did she tried to think about someone else it would benefit. From nursing; taking care of the ill, to home care of senior citizens, my grandmother was an angel. I knew I could always count on her for advice when I had no one else or couldn’t tell anyone. She was my secret keeper. She helped me and mom through thick and thin. She was wise in her own ways, had a way with animals you couldn’t describe. Even more so was the way people took to her. Kids looked up to her and adults adored her. I know she will live within me and my family because she was a true miracle. Thanks to her more of a miracle has happened, we gained another member of our family, Daryl.

Mommom is say to you that I will never forget all that you are and all you held for me and this family in your heart. Death may leave a heartache that nothing can heal but your love and kindness leaves memories no one can steal. We may be apart for now that’s true but in a short time I will see you once more when at last to the heavens I do soar. Mommom you are and forever will be my best friend. I love you.

Love Always,
