“ Lou Ann, I'm honoring your mom with you today. She was a great Lady who leaves a legacy of beauty, strength, faith, courage, & love. Let us celebrate her with joy and not mourn too long, but exemplify all she taught us. You are a great daughter and served her well in her last years!! Peace, Hugs & Love, my friend. Doris

“ Aunt Dorothy and Uncle Henry were always there for me after the early passing of my parents. When I left Secaucus in 1982 to move to Maine, they hosted a going away BBQ for me and all my friends. In 1994 they came all the way to Maine to share in my wedding to Laura. We both loved the look on Aunt Dot's face when we surprised her for her 90th birthday and we enjoyed visiting with her on our yearly trip back to Maine each spring.
