

Dorothy Mae Everett Cronshaw

October 9, 1918 - June 12, 2017

Dorothy Mae Everett Cronshaw of Elkton, MD, formerly of Sudlersville, MD died Monday, June 12, 2017 at Abbey Manor Assisted Living in Elkton, MD. She was 98.

Dorothy was born October 9, 1918, in Kent County near Massey, MD, the daughter of the late Blanche Wiggins Everett and Louis Henry Everett. When at a very young age, she and her the family moved from Massey to Sudlersville on a farm. She attended school in Sudlersville then graduated in 1936 from Sudlersville High School. She was married to Earl Price Cronshaw on July 20, 1936. They started farming near Sudlersville until 1959, then moved near Chestertown. Earl passed away on December 16, 1998. She later moved back to her hometown of Sudlersville to live in Foxxtown Apts.

She is preceded in death by her husband of 62 years, Earl Cronshaw, a brother, James Stanley Everett; a sister, Florence E. Stevens; and a nephew, Charles Stevens.

Her interests included music, traveling, reading, and playing cards with her friends in Foxxtown Apts. She was a member of Calvary Asbury United Methodist Church in Sudlersville, a member of the Top of the Hill Club, and former member of Modern Maturity Club in Dover, DE.

She is survived by one brother, Louis Calvin Everett of Dover, DE; and three devoted nieces, Elizabeth Ann Peden of New Castle, DE, Brenda Sue Barbato of Berlin, MD and Norma Kay Jamison of Berlin, MD.

A graveside service will be held Thursday, June 15, 2017, at 11 a.m. at Sudlersville Cemetery in Sudlersville, MD.

In lieu of flowers, contributions can be sent to Calvary Asbury United Methodist Church, P.O. Box 202, Sudlersville, MD 21668.
