

Dorothy Alene Dew

January 6, 1932 - February 17, 2022

Dorothy (Dottie) Morgan Dew, 90, passed on Wednesday, February 17 at Candle Light Cove, Easton, Maryland. She had recently celebrated her 90th birthday with her children, grandchildren, and a great-grandchild.

Dottie was born on January 6, 1932, in Seaford, Delaware. Her parents were Mae and Leroy Morgan. The youngest of five children (Betty, Oliver, Frank, Eddie, Dottie), she graduated from Seaford High School in 1949. Dottie enjoyed school and loved all of her classes except Problems of Democracy (POD). A talented actress and singer, she starred in plays and sang in the chorus. In addition, she was an energetic cheerleader.

Not long after high school (1950), Dottie married the love of her life – James (Jimmie) Dew. They enjoyed 50 loving years of marriage. Jimmie and Dottie led an active social life, spent many summers in their beach home, and traveled extensively in their RV. Dottie had a number of hobbies: painting, needlework, ceramics, bridge, and golf, to name a few. She won the Caroline Country Club Women's Championship in 1986, sinking a hole-in-one!

Dottie had an infectious smile and laugh, a wry sense of humor, and a young-at-heart personality. She was just plain fun to be around – even her teenaged children enjoyed her company! She was a loving grandmother and great-grandmother.

Dottie was preceded in death by her husband Jimmie (2000). She is survived by her children, Debra Dew (Terry Gano), Michael Dew (Barbara Bender), and Gerri McGuire (Bill McGuire); her grandchildren, Patrick Kelley, Jeremy Kelley (Sherrie), Brandon Dew (Odalys), Jaclyn Dew, Kaitlin Millhench (Aaron), Michael McGuire, and Logan McGuire; and greatgrandchildren, Luca Dew, Ethan Dew, Phelan Millhench, Poppy Millhench, and Scarlett Kelley.

A memorial service will be held on Tuesday, March 15, 11:00 a.m. at St. Mark's Methodist Church in Easton, Maryland. Burial will be private.

In lieu of flowers, please donate to Alzheimer's care, support, and research at act.alz.org

“ I love all of the photos of Dottie smiling and laughing! My parents always enjoyed your parents, through bridge and other activities. And, I loved running into your Mom in the grocery store now and then.

To the family: Our prayers and blessings are with you at this time during the loss of a wonderful lady. We first met Dottie at Caroline Country Club and we had many, many great times golfing. She and Jimmy were great supporters of the club. Those memories will always remain with us. We saw her several times at the Amish Market in Easton and had good chats. Hold onto the wonderful memories you have of her. God Bless, Gene and Lynda Palmatary, Centreville.
