“ My Aunt Dot was one of a kind, as were all her sisters. She was always there for all of us no matter what we might need. She had a hard scrabble life growing up, but as an adult was blessed as well as a true true blessing. Her good works will last forever for all of us.

AE

Such a wonderful, Christian Lady! I have so many memories of her from my time as a candy stripper at K&QA Hospital, to my working as a nurse there and she coming around in the evenings, to her work with the Gideon's, to my work as a nurse for Home Health Hospice and caring for her wonderful family members, and then seeing her come to the Medical Adult Day Care -- she ALWAYS had a beautiful smile, and always knew who I was. My heart felt condolences and prayers to her family as you say "until we meet again" as I know she has a place in Heaven!!
