“ Dottie is a very special friend. I met her first at Aunt Mary's Yarn store. I was impressed she knitted sweaters. She always seem to smile and be positive. She went with her husband on a mission trip to Peru. I was amazed at her courage.

She also was a faithful reader. She would come into the library where I worked with a list of books read and books she wanted to read.

She touched so many women's lives through women's Sunday school class she taught.

She was a foundation stone for Safe Harbor Presbyterian Church.

She faithfully prayed for the young pastor Todd and Cindy and their children.

She is with the Lord and her beloved husband Bill.

Dottie, we miss you. We'll done for being a faithful servant to the Lord.
