“ I did not know Mrs. Swicegood, but I do know her caring daughter, Cindy. Cindy spoke kindly and lovingly of her mother. Cindy and I are Soroptimist Sisters. If Mrs. Swicegood was, and I am sure she was, anything like her wonderful daughter, Cindy, then she is now in Good Hands in Heaven. I am so sorry for your loss, Cindy and am praying for you. I know that you gave your mother the best of care she could receive and you were truly a good, loving daughter. Rita Kulley.

Mark and Cindy, your Mom always had kind words to say to me and all who knew her from our group , I called her Flo for a long time before she finally told me her real name, your Mom and Jean were a part of my circle of friends we made along about 20 years or so, I watched Willo and Ava grow up with them, I will cherish the time they followed me to Sheffield, Alabama where we had the greatest of times. I lost a great friend and loyal Fan, want yall to know how much we all loved her.
