“I can remember all of my good friends from different periods in my 66 years, and Drew was a really good one from ~1965 to 1967. And even after that we'd always take time to chat if I was in town and we'd run into each other. But early on he was just one of 4 or 5 close friends, 14 and 15 year old boys hanging out at Price's Store on the corner of Cordova Road and Rt. 50, thinking and doing all the goofy things 14 and 15 year old boys think and do. Drew was great. And an important part of a group of friends I'll never forget. My condolences go out to those who Love him.
