“ Dear family, my heart is breaking for your loss. Duane was the sweetest, kindest, gentlest soul. His smile would always light up a family gathering. We could all see how much he loved you and how dearly you all loved Duane. My deepest condolences to you Uncle Steve, Aunt Judy, Carl, Eileen, Sharon, Steve, Katie and Tom. May his memory be a blessing. Sending you all my love, Nina

“ *Duane was a very caring person and a wonderful brother, uncle, and father. My girls would always get the biggest kick out of him. He would always make you laugh no matter what he was feeling. Duane loved animals and would give anyone the shirt off his back. It is very hard knowing that we will never see his smiling face again or his goofyness (if that is even a word) but those of you that knew Duane know exactly what I mean. I have to take comfort knowing that he is with his beloved daughter Sara and he is once again being goofy with her and making her laugh. We will miss you Duane
Love Katie*

“ I have fond memories of Duane since middle school and high school. Such a sweet person. Always had a kind word to say about everyone. My favorite memory was that I was one of the few people that could read his handwriting and so the teachers would ask me to decipher his papers from time to time! Rest in heavenly peace Duane. God bless his family.
